

Come find out. Join us for the 2022 Clay County Communities Revitalization Association annual gathering and covered-dish dinner at the Historic Clay County Courthouse/Beal Center at 6 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 20 - registration at 5:30 p.m. If you've seen our name and wondered who we are and what we are all about or would like to hear about the upcoming developments in Clay County, we extend an invitation to you. Everyone is welcome, you do not need to be a member to attend.

The featured speakers this year are Steve Hindsman, Chairman of Clay County Rural Development; Mike Plummer, owner of Nocturnal & Laughing Waters and Chris Spring, owner of George's Hardware.

CCCRA is a 501 (c) (3) nonprofit volunteer organization devoted to preserving and improving Clay County for its residents and visitors. We have a long record of achievements this past year, some of which include the completion of the Rocky Cove Trail at Jackrabbit, the Cherokee Heritage Festival, the refurbishment of the Historic Clay County Courthouse/Beal Center tower and many events at the Historic Clay County Courthouse/Beal Center. This includes the annual Made in the Mountains event, which will be held this year on Black Friday, Nov. 25.

Grab a friend and join us for a wonderful evening. To stay updated on both CCCRA and community events, subscribe to our newsletter at: <https://www.cccra-nc.org/contact>.
