As a true sign that things are returning to normal, Clay County Communities Revitalization Association’s Friday Summer Concert Series on the Square returns to Hayesville tomorrow night with local talent Wyatt Espalin. The first of seven concerts this season, CCCRA is thrilled to have Wyatt and his special guests on stage in the gazebo.

Wyatt, a native of Hiawasse, Georgia, has entertained guests since he was eight years old. An acclaimed songwriter, guitarist and fiddler, Wyatt’s “alternative folk” is sure to be entertaining. (wyattespalinmusic.com).

Food, beer and wine will be available for purchase from Nocturnal Brewing Company and the American Legion will be roasting their crowd-pleasing hot dogs as a fundraiser. Activities get underway at 6pm and music begins at 7pm.

The CCCRA Friday Summer Concert Series is made possible through sponsorships from private individuals, businesses, and organizations, and from donations to the “red buckets” on concert nights. Mark your calendar for future concert dates: July 30th, August 6th and 13th, September 3rd, 19th and 24th.

Everyone is encouraged to bring your favorite “bestie”, lawn chair or blanket, and come out to the Square tomorrow for a fun night.
