CCCRA welcomes Blue Ridge, Ga artist Lindsay Beth Harper to the historic square for the first-time tomorrow night. Inspired by Shaina Twain and Patsy Cline as a child, Ms. Harper is an alternative country/Americana singer-songwriter who combines sounds of traditional and modern country with emotionally textured vocals for a uniquely appealing sound.

Nocturnal Brewing Company will be selling delicious food, craft beer and wine. The American Legion Post 532 will raising funds by selling crowd-pleasing hot dogs and freshly popped corn.

Activities get underway at 6pm and music begins at 7pm. Please note that carrying-in of alcoholic beverages is prohibited by NC law. The CCCRA Friday Summer Concert Series is made possible through sponsorships from private individuals, businesses, and organizations, and from donations to the “red buckets” on concert nights.

We invite everyone to help give a warm Clay County welcome to Lindsay Beth Harper (www.lindsaybethharper.com).
