

The Alex Key concert rain out date, as part of the CCCRA Summer Concert Series, is Friday, Aug. 26, we hope to see you there. Food service begins at 6 p.m. and the concert begins at 7 p.m. You may remember Key's tour bus parked in town last year. Key, born in Wilkesboro, N.C., has been nominated for Song of the Year, Single of the Year and Video of the Year for his hit song "Fool that I Am" at the 2022 Josie Music Awards, which will take place this November at the Grand Ole Opry. His first album "Barstools and Saddles," released in April 2021, hit the top 40 on iTunes worldwide country music charts multiple times. You won't want to miss this one.

The Pic-A-Nick Basket Deli will have food available to purchase and the American Legion Auxiliary will be roasting hot dogs as a fundraiser for veterans.

The next dates for this year's concerts are Fridays, Sept. 2 and 9. To see the full concert list visit: www.cccra-nc.org.

This year CCCRA is selling "Summer Concerts on the Square" T-shirts. Make sure you grab one of these unique shirts at the CCCRA table. Cash or card accepted. CCCRA's Summer Concert Series is made possible through sponsorships from private individuals, businesses, organizations and from donations to the red buckets on concert nights.

Don't forget that Historic Hayesville Inc. offers free rides on the red rider to or from your vehicle and the square. Everyone is encouraged to bring friends and family, a lawn chair or blanket and come out to the square for good music, food and dancing.

If we have to make the difficult decision to cancel and/or reschedule any of our Friday night concerts due to weather, an announcement will be made on both the CCCRA website and the CCCRA Facebook page.
